PROCLAMATION

“COMMISSIONAIRES CENTENNIAL DAY”

September 15, 2025

- WHEREAS Commissionaires Victoria, the Islands and Yukon (CVIY) is proud to celebrate its 100th anniversary as a provider of security services in Canada; and
- WHEREAS On July 25, 1925, the Canadian Corps of Commissionaires was founded with a mission to provide meaningful employment for veterans returning from war; and
- WHEREAS Today, 100 years later, CVIY is driven by its social mandate to provide meaningful employment to veterans of the Canadian Armed Forces, RCMP and other former first responders; and
- WHEREAS In addition, they are joined by dedicated professionals from all walks of life, who serve a range of clients across industries united by a shared commitment to safety, service, and community; and
- WHEREAS As a not-for-profit organization, CVIY reinvests in people, purpose, and the communities they serve. CVIY delivers trusted security and advanced technology solutions across Vancouver Island, helping to protect what matters most.

THEREFORE, I, Barbara Desjardins, Mayor of the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt, do hereby proclaim September 15, 2025, as

“Commissionaires Centennial Day”

In the Municipality of Esquimalt, Province of British Columbia.

Barbara Desjardins
